Notes :
・The quantities of tunas purchased do not include the sashimi platters and eating out.
・Fresh meat means beef, pork, chicken, mince and other raw meat, except processed meat such as ham and sausage.
・Before 1999, the figures excluded agricultural, forestry and fishermen's households.
・As the quantity of food has been surveyed for only one-sixth of all households since 2002, the method of calculating the quantity and price of food is different between before and after 2002.
